

PALMER PHYSICAL LABORATORY
PRINCETON UNIVERSITY
PRINCETON, NEW JERSEY

6 November 1958

Dr. Hugh Everett
WSEG
Pentagon
Washington, D. C.

Dear Hugh:

What of course I should have added in my note is that your point of view seems precisely what is needed to provide a natural physical ground for some of Eddington's arguments, removing the quasi-epistemological confusion and mystery surrounding the status of his approach and giving us a way to try and ground some of such on purely physical reasoning.

Peter

Peter

PP:mbp

cc: Professor Wheeler