

Jan. 24, 76

Dear Sirs:

Due to prior commitments
I am unable to give paper time + attention ~~that it deserves.~~ reviewing this paper <sup>while</sup> it deserves.
copy!

High Energy III

January 24, 1976
Physical Review Letters
Upton, New York 11973

Dear Sirs:

Thank you for sending me the enclosed copy of
"Quantum Physics of Single Systems." LN614

I regret that due to prior commitments I am unable to give the time and attention to reviewing this paper that a proper job of it requires.

Sincerely yours,

HEIII

HE/ne

After careful consideration I must conclude that the enclosed paper is best described by the technical term "BULLSHIT".

There remain two intriguing possibilities: 1) this is an example of state-of-the-art computer generated configurations of buzz words specific to a particular field -- in which case it is a real advance in automatic syntax + grammar generation, and the program should be published as a major advance.

2) There might somehow be contained some good ideas
despite the expression form. Suggest contact George E. Pugh, address _____ as ~~refer~~ referee to explore this possibility.
_____

(To get his attention, use codeword "MARNYESQUE".